

Client Council Names NLADA Scholarship Recipients

This year's NLADA Scholarship recipients are:

Robbie Adjei is a former client of Greater Boston Legal Services (GBLS) who has chosen to give back by serving on the Board of Directors, which she joined in 2005. She is an active member of the Board as well as of the GBLS Client Caucus and a member of the Legislative Committee. She is a recent graduate of UMass Boston, where she studied legal advocacy and wrote about citizen participation in public housing governance. Robbie has been a community activist with the Madison Park Development Corporation as well as with several student organizations.

Elizabeth Anderson is the newest client board member of Community Legal Services And Counseling Center (CLSACC). Liz joined CLSACC's Board in the fall of 2007 and has become very active by attending meeting and serving on board committees. She is well-known to MLAC, as she was the speaker at the 2007 Walk to the Hill lobbying event, presenting a very moving story about how CLSACC helped her escape from an abusive relationship. More recently, she told her story again at a reception organized by the Middlesex Probate and Family Court to honor lawyers who have volunteered their services to assist indigent litigants in that court.

Timothy Lee joined the Board of Directors of the Volunteer Lawyers Project (VLP) almost three years ago. Since joining the board, he has attended virtually every board and committee meeting and has become involved in the Client Council. Tim lives in the Framingham area and is also very active in Advocates Inc. of Framingham, a provider of human services.
